Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election with traverse of Group I, Claims 1-3, in the reply filed on 11-18-2009 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that there are special technical features that unite the various inventions. This is not found persuasive because The X reference cited in the International Search Report filed 9-5-2006 precludes any special technical features common among the inventions. All claims will be examined as amended.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by GB 996,056.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over GB996,056 in view of Wells(U.S.Pat.4,135,080). GB996,056 does not show a tangential fan. Wells discloses a heated blower that shows a tangential fan. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the claimed invention to use a tangential fan as taught by Wells with the device of GB996,056 so that the most efficient air flow through the electric air heating is acquired.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2, 4 and 5 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Bertani and McDougall are cited to show structure similar to the claimed invention.
